The card is titled "Whispering Madness" in a stylized font. The top right corner shows a cost of 2 blue mana and a skull icon. The central illustration depicts a man in a dark, hooded robe with a skull on the collar, looking intensely at a document he is holding. A green, tentacle-like creature is visible in the background. The card is framed by a gold border. The bottom section is a tan-colored box containing the card's name, "Sorcery", and a shield icon. The main text describes the card's effect: "Each player discards his or her hand, then draws cards equal to the greatest number of cards a player discarded this way." Below this is the flavor text: "Cipher (Then you may exile this spell card encoded on a creature you control. Whenever that creature deals combat damage to a player, its controller may cast a copy of the encoded card without paying its mana cost.)".
