The image shows the artwork for the Magic: The Gathering card 'Prison Realm'. It depicts Bolas, the Dragon-God, a large, dark, scaly creature with a long, segmented tail and a head with multiple eyes and horns. He is standing in a dark, watery environment with a purple and blue sky in the background. The card is a blue-bordered enchantment with a mana cost of two blue mana. The text on the card describes its effect: when it enters the battlefield, it exiles target creature or planeswalker an opponent controls until it leaves the battlefield. A flavor text at the bottom reads: 'After millennia to craft victory, Bolas had eternity to contemplate defeat.'
